Scholarships
Information on music scholarships may be obtained by writing to the chair, Music Scholarship Committee, School of Music and Dance, San Diego State University.

General Information
The School of Music and Dance offers graduate study leading to the Master of Arts degree in music and the Master of Music degree. The school also offers advanced coursework in dance which may be used toward fulfilling advanced degree requirements in Interdisciplinary Studies and in other departments with the approval of the student’s graduate adviser.

With approval of the school, students electing to pursue the Master of Arts degree may specialize in one of the following fields: ethnomusicology; musicology; piano pedagogy or theory. Master of Music students may specialize in performance, composition, jazz or conducting.

Graduate students are prepared for careers that encompass scholarly research, teaching, performing, or creating new works.

Specializations of the music faculty include:
Composition and theory: Aesthetics, electro-acoustic composition, comprehensive musicianship, contemporary music, relationships among the arts.
Conducting: Literature and score analysis, rehearsal techniques, general preparation and performance in both the choral and instrumental areas.
Ethnomusicology: African, African-American, American folk, East Asian, European, South Asian, and Southeast Asian musics. Students may elect research in other areas with approval of the faculty adviser.
Musicology: With the approval of the faculty, students may select a topic in medieval, renaissance, baroque, classical, romantic, twentieth century music, or American music.
Performance: Performance studies are offered on all instruments and voice.
Piano pedagogy: Preparation of the teacher of the child, adolescent, or adult students.

The 78,000 square-foot music building, completed in 1970, includes a 300-seat recital hall, rehearsal rooms for instrumental and choral organizations, an electronic music studio, two class-piano rooms, a listening library with a collection of over 13,000 titles available for faculty/student study, 71 individual practice rooms, and approximately 160 pianos and 800 other musical instruments. The university library contains an extensive collection of over 75,000 music books and scores.

The School of Music and Dance has a 24-station student computer laboratory that provides facilities for computer assisted instruction in music theory and ear training, programs for graphics and composing music, MIDI, and notation software.

The electronic music composition studio includes the latest electronic music equipment available.

The School of Music and Dance houses numerous ethnic instruments including Balinese and Javanese Gamelans and numerous other musical instruments of the world.

Statement on Computers
Students must become competent in the operation of personal computers to include word processing software, presentation software, web-based applications, and music notation software. Students, especially those planning to pursue the composition or electro-acoustic composition track, are encouraged to own a Macintosh laptop computer capable of running sophisticated music notation/composition software. For additional information regarding suggested platform and software information, contact the School of Music and Dance.
Admission to Graduate Study in Music

Applicants must have completed a bachelor's degree with a major in music including full preparation in performance, theory, music history, and literature, or hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution and present sufficient evidence of study and experience in music to demonstrate the equivalency of a bachelor's degree with a major in music.

All domestic students must demonstrate a minimum 2.85 GPA. All foreign students must demonstrate a minimum 3.0 GPA and in cases where the primary instruction was in a language other than English, a minimum TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) score of 550. Foreign applicants taking the Computer-Based Test of English as a Foreign Language (CBTOEFL) must achieve a minimum score of 213 or 80 or higher using the Internet version.

After taking placement examinations in Western music history, Western music theory, aural skills, and performance (where applicable), applicants will be admitted to the program with conditional graduate standing. Normally, one semester will be allowed to remove deficiencies indicated by these placement examinations.

Students applying for admission should electronically submit the university application available at http://www.csumentor.edu along with the $55 application fee. All applicants must submit admissions materials separately to SDSU Graduate Admissions and to the School of Music and Dance.

Graduate Admissions

The following materials should be submitted as a complete package directly to:

Graduate Admissions
Enrollment Services
San Diego State University
San Diego, CA 92182-7416

(1) Official transcripts (in sealed envelopes) from all postsecondary institutions attended; Note:
- Students who attended SDSU need only submit transcripts for work completed since last attendance.
- Students with international coursework must submit both the official transcript and proof of degree. If documents are in a language other than English, they must be accompanied by a certified English translation.

(2) GRE scores (http://www.ets.org/SDSU institution code 4682);
(3) TOEFL or the CBTOEFL score for foreign students, if instruction was in a language other than English (http://www.ets.org/SDSU institution code 4682).

School of Music and Dance

The following materials should be compiled in one envelope and sent directly to:

Director of Graduate Studies
School of Music and Dance
San Diego State University
5500 Campanile Drive
San Diego, CA 92182-7902

(1) Two letters of reference;
(2) A one-page statement of personal aims and goals.

Advancement to Candidacy

All students must satisfy the general requirements for advancement to candidacy, as described in Part Four of this bulletin, and must have removed any deficiencies identified in the qualifying (placement) examinations by the end of the first semester.

Admission to Master of Arts Degree in Music

In addition to the general admission requirements, special admission requirements for the M.A. in ethnomusicology, if student has an undergraduate music degree, include: (a) submit a research paper; (b) prepare an audition on an instrument or voice in western or non-western music; (c) complete an interview; and (d) complete the qualifying (placement) examination in music history. If a potential graduate student in ethnomusicology has an undergraduate degree in anthropology or related humanistic discipline, the student must complete the equivalent of Music 205A and 205B, in addition to the requirements listed above.

Special admission requirements for the M.A. in musicology include: (a) a one to two-page statement of objectives that explains how the student has been involved in music, why the student is interested in pursuing a graduate degree in musicology, and what research topics interest the student; (b) three letters of recommendation from individuals who are in a position to comment on the student's potential to succeed in graduate work; and (c) a 10 to 12-page paper on any topic of music history that reflects exceptional skills in critical thinking, to include references to appropriate literature, and demonstrates competence in spelling, grammar, organization, and citation format.

In addition to the admission requirements for the School of Music, a student seeking the M.A. in piano pedagogy must: (a) submit an undergraduate research paper or research article on a pedagogical topic with references; (b) submit a DVD of recent piano teaching; and (c) complete an interview.

Specific Requirements for the Master of Arts Degree

(Major Code: 10051) (SIMS Code: 665302)

Artist Diploma Advanced Certificate

(Major Code: 90045) (SIMS Code: 665388)

The artist diploma prepares preprofessional performance students for professional careers by giving focused instruction in all areas of performance including technique, interpretation, repertoire, stage deportment and communication skills, and knowledge of the business of professional performance.

Applicants must show proof of completion of an undergraduate music degree from an accredited institution with a GPA of 3.0 in the last 60 semester (90 quarter) units attempted. Successful completion of an entrance audition and a review of undergraduate transcripts are required for entrance to this certificate program. Students whose undergraduate degree is not in music must complete qualifying placement examinations in Western music theory, Western history and literature, and aural skills, in addition to the entrance audition. Students must enroll in this program as matriculated students.

Students must complete the following 24-unit curriculum: Music 515, 516 (2 units), 569-589 (vocal majors must choose opera) (4 units), 651 (8 units); 767; 798 (1 unit); four units to be selected from Music 507, 518A-518B, 541, 542, 543, 554 (2-4 units), 566A-566B (for jazz studies students only), 590, 641, 766, or 1-3 additional units of 798. Vocal students must demonstrate competency equal to a college-level course in French, German, and Italian.

The graduate adviser will be responsible for verifying a student’s satisfactory completion of the academic requirements established for the program and for forwarding a completed copy of the verification form to Graduate and Research Affairs. Additionally, this adviser will direct the student into elective coursework that best suits the needs of the individual student.

All units in this certificate program are applicable to the various specializations in the M.A. in Music and the M.M. degree programs. However, not all courses are required in each specialization. Please see the requirements for each graduate specialization listed in the Graduate Bulletin.
